DETAILED ACTION

1. Claims 17, 18, and 23-27 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. In claim 17, "the central force-applying lines of said power-generating elements" lacks antecedent basis. Further it is not clear where a "centerline axial direction" is located with respect to the structure. Claim 23 fails to particularly point out or further restrict the structure of that of claim 13.

Regarding claim 24, claim 24 fails to set forth specific structure for making the desired parts by hydroforming. Claim 25 is indefinite and unclear. It appears that the applicant is claiming a part comprising a tension loop, yet the third subparagraph is unclear and fails to further modify the tension loop of the second subparagraph.

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claim 25 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Jonsson or Lipiec et al. Both Jonsson and Lipiec et al. teach the claimed tension loop with bearing surfaces and wherein the tension frame is made from a reinforced metal compound (steel wires).

3. Claims 26 and 27 would be allowable if rewritten to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, 2nd paragraph, set forth in this Office action and to include all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
4. Claims 13-16 and 19-22 allowed.
5. Claims 17, 18, 23, and 24 would be allowable if rewritten or amended to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, 2nd paragraph, set forth in this Office action.
6. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
7. Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to David B. Jones whose telephone number is 571 272 4518.
